RE: Scholarships for inaugural Russian International Olympic University MSA still available

NUMBER OF PAGES INCLUDING THIS ONE: 2

Dear Friends,

FINA encourages each member National Federation to learn more about the Russian International Olympic University's inaugural Master of Sport Administration (MSA) course and to consider sending someone on it. There are still some scholarships available, which are generously provided by The Vladimir Potanin Foundation and the first intake will start their studies this September, in Sochi, Russia -just in time for the Winter Games in 2014.

RIOU is the world's first university dedicated to sport business education, offering unique programmes infused with Olympic values and experiences.

The ground-breaking MSA has been devised to provide a new generation of effective sports managers with the knowledge and skills to successfully manage sports organisations, events and venues in any economic environment. The course is ideal for experienced executives in the sports industry who are eager to improve their understanding, arm themselves with modern, best in class tools and practices in sport business, and accelerate their career development.

FINA believes that this is a great opportunity for the most talented and ambitious National Federation executives to learn from the very best in sport business whilst being at the heart of the Sochi 2014 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games.

If you are interested in applying for the scholarship and for the chance to study in this unique environment, please liaise with your manager for approval. Then click here www.fondpotanin.ru or contact RIOU staff: +7(495)956-2430(Moscow); +7(862)296-8758(Sochi) for more information about the scholarship and the application process.
